

STUDENTS' RESPONSIBILITY

In accepting admission to graduate study at New Jersey City University, a public institution of higher learning, students assume the responsibilities and behavior patterns stipulated by the University. Graduate students at the University are expected to have a serious interest in their intellectual growth. Students are expected to meet problems with intelligence and resourcefulness and to have respect for the rights of others. Students are expected to comply with federal laws and ordinances of the State, county, and city, as well as the regulations of the University. Any student who commits a breach of State, county or city law or ordinance or university regulation shall be subject to such reasonable disciplinary action as deemed appropriate by the University. This may include suspension, dismissal or expulsion.
