About the Catalog

The Graduate Catalog of New Jersey City University is published on an annual basis and presents announcements regarding general information, general academic regulations, and/or academic programs extant at the date of publication. The University reserves the right to change any of its announcements, regulations, or requirements at any time without notice or obligation. Further, this information does not constitute a contract, and the University reserves the right for any reason to cancel or modify any course or program listed herein, or to make changes in any of the material contained herein at any time. Individual course offerings and programs may vary from year to year as circumstances dictate.

Each student will be governed by the specific program requirements that are in effect at the time of matriculation. The graduate procedures, policies, regulations, and fees are subject to change. The University will endeavor to keep students informed of changes in policies and procedures. Each student, however, is responsible for keeping informed of and complying with policies and procedures. For the most current information about course offerings, academic programs, policies, and regulations, students are directed to the University website at www.njcu.edu (<http://www.njcu.edu>).

Failure to read the graduate catalog and information on the University's website does not excuse a student from the requirements and regulations described therein.
