

SPANISH, MINOR

Completion of this minor complements any major concentration offered at NJCU. Well-developed Spanish language skills increase career opportunities in many fields: communications and media, translation and interpretation, public relations, business, import/export, and many other areas that require proficiency in Spanish and/of familiarity with Hispanic literatures, language and cultures.

Please Note: Any course with a final grade of C– or lower will not count towards the 18 credits for the minor

Code	Title	Credits
Required
LANG 304 or LANG 314	The Art Of Writing In Spanish Spanish Writing For The Professions	3
LANG 307 or LANG 308	Authors And Readings From Spain Voices And Texts Of Latin America	3
LANG 306 or LANG 350	Past and Present of Latin America The Many Faces of Spain	3
Restricted Electives
Select 9 credits from the following courses at the 400 or 500 level: ¹		9
LANG 401	Hispanic Literature of the Caribbean	3
LANG 402	Race and Ethnicity in Spanish American Literature	3
LANG 403	Literature of Cuba	3
LANG 406	20th Century Spanish-American Prose Literature	3
LANG 407	Spanish American Literature of the 19th Century	3
LANG 408	Colonial and Post -Colonial Studies	3
LANG 409	Introduction to Spanish Interpreting for the Professions	3
LANG 410	Latinx Writers	3
LANG 416	Twentieth Century Spanish Prose Literature	3
LANG 417	19th Century Spanish Literature	3
LANG 418	Theater of Golden Age	3
LANG 419	Cervantes	3
LANG 420	20th Century Spanish-American Poetry	3
LANG 421	20th Century Spanish-American Drama	3
LANG 436	The Art of Translation and Interpreting for Professions	3
LANG 445	Introduction to the Teaching of Spanish	3
Total Credits		18

¹ These courses must be approved by advisor