

SOCIOLOGY, MINOR

A sociology or anthropology minor is an excellent supplement to any degree program. It is however, particularly relevant for students interested in people-focused careers. Majors in psychology, business, health sciences, nursing, professional security or education may find a deeper understanding of human social lives beneficial to their educational pursuits and careers. Students interested in pursuing a Minor in Anthropology should consult with Dr. Kenneth Good at kgood@njcu.edu or 201-200-3536 for advisement.
